Coincidence In Injury of Two Children

Teddy Sullivan, the four year old child of H. L. Sullivan of 14 First stree slipped on a wet floor which his mother was scrubbing yesterday and broke his left leg. Dr. C. R. Blake was summoned and discovered that the case was so serious as to make necessary the removal of the little boy to the children's hospital in San Francisco.

Dr. Blake called attention to the striking similarity of this case to one which happened about two weeks ago when a four year old boy fell into a tub of hot water on the floor while his mother was scrubbing and received burns which caused his death, showing that great care should be exercised in the using of hot suds about the house when children are playing on the floor.

VESSEL BREAKS TOW LINE IN HEAVY TIDE

Two Tug Boats Rush to Aid Sequoia But Arrive Too Late

The 10,000 ton Standard Oil Indian Head Steamer Sequoia, loading oil for Hong Kong China broke her tow line yesterday afternoon in a strong ebb tide and, drifted into the wharf at Point Orient, crashing through fifty feet of piles and tilting the outer approach at an angle of forty five degrees.

The greater part of the vessel's superstructure was torn loose and swept clean of the decks while a large dent was made in her side. The vessel is constructed of steel and will have to be taken to the Union Iron Works in San Francisco for repairs. A pile driver will have to be used to re-construct the wharf.

Calls were sent out for tug boats when the plight of the vessel was discerned by the employees of the Standard Oil company working in the vicinity but arrived to late to save her from the accident. Two tugs responded to the call.

The tanker was in charge of First Mate George James.

AUTOISTS ENDANGERED

NEXT EIGENMAN MEETING OPEN ONE IS POLICE CONTROVERY UNWELCOME

Repeated and apparently well founded rumors have it that in face of the stir which has arisen out of the summary dismissal of police Inspector Fred Eigenman from the local force, that the next meeting will be an open one which the public will be privileged to attend.

A strong opposition has developed to the secret sessions of the police commission of the city council and the result is likely to be a thorough upheaval in the department.

Different views have been taken as the controversy has progressed. There are those who consider the entire affair as most unfortunate. There are others who are of the opinion that the best way to throw a true light on the situation is to allow two opposing factions to be stirred up whereupon one or the other will disclose that which should be and will be known by the public.

The status of things police can best be ascertained through this course. Whether this be true, or not story is jadeed from similar shakeups in other sections. There has seldom been a general mix-up in any municipal department in any city that the public did not learn something of considerable value.

Baptist Ladies Tender Farewell Party to A. L. Pierson and Family

A farewell reception was yesterday tendered Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pearson and family in the parlors of the First Baptist church by the ladies of that organization. The church parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion, by the committee in charge consisting of Mesdames R. G. Lea, Paul Dunlap, F. Stout, J. Golden, J. Coward, and C. E. Bennett.

A spread that cannot be designated as anything but sumtuous and elaborate was prepared by Mesdames, W. Piety, J. Golden, Paul Dunlap, John Gerlach, Ben Rather, F. Stout, and J. Coward.

A beautiful silver token was presented the guests of honor by the Ladies' Aid Society and other friends. A program was rendered consisting of the following numbers. Innovation, Reverend Peterson, Song, America, by the assembled guests, Recitation, Miss Teresa Colle, Instrumental trio, Charles Bennett, Stanley Lindahl, and Stanley Treffler, Solo, Mrs. S. Jenkins; recitation, Mrs. John Gerlach; Vocal Duet, by Rovilla, and Maurce Lang; remarks and presentation address, Mrs. Artie Piety; Remarks, Reverend Skinner, song by guests "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISES ARE BOOMING IN RICHMOND

Peoples' Water Company Has Given Local Concern Order for Large Ammount of Water Pipe To Be Installed.

Belief Is That Proposed Will Be Adequate To Exigencies of Greatest Possibilite Development for Many Years.

Prospective industrial enterprises in Richmond and vicinity, and the increased activity of established plants, have caused public utilities operating in this vicinity to plan further facilities to meet the demand. This paper yesterday confirmed the rumor that the Peoples Water company realizing the importance of Richmond, as an Industrial center has recently given a local concern an extensive order for twenty four inch water mains. The order is now being pushed as rapidly as possible and the pipe will be laid as fast as deliveries are made. It is anticipated that the entire job will be finished by the first of next June.

The Peoples Water Company's investment in this large supply main which is said to total $1,500,000 was authorized by its board of Directors in January and is being made to give Richmond a supply of water equal to every demand for many years to come. In fact this new main with Richmond at its northern terminal being in the vicinity of their large pumping plant at 24th Avenue and the Southern Pacific right of way in East Oakland. In addition to this supply of water plans are being made by the Water Company for a huge storage supply within a short distance of Richmond which will serve direct and will meet all future needs

At the meeting of the Richmond Water Commission last night the report of Engineer J. H. Dockweiler was taken up and discussed at length.

"Oh a Cannibal's a maid, dressed light
Who jumps about in manner bright
While crowds aplaud her wpith de-delight;—
At least, in vaudeville,, every night.

(Unpublished poems of Frank Busk)

The Cannibal maids are coming! They're the maddest, merriest galaxy of comic stars that ever lifted their feet in lieu of joyous voices, or trod on a missionary's toes in the approved cannibalistic style.

They're going to dance and sing in an Anlicized sort of South sea way, with many a quip and ject, to say nothing of a few new and catchy songs, to help along the joy-mixture.

This remarkable vaudeville act, the latest and best of the clever bits manager Pantages has imported from the east, is to head one of the biggest aggregations of real joy in the shape of vaudeville material ever assembled in a Pantages house during the coming week. It's to be one big dream of mirth and joy;—and there'll be a little music and some good "Straight stuff" to help it along.

The Spring vaudeville bills are to be the big bills of the season.. There'll be big attraction after big attraction, starting with the coming week's bill in which Frank Bush the most famous of story tellers—who says he's no relation to Joe Bush—and the Cannibal maids with Gus Elmore, the noted comedian, will divide honors.

Then there'll be a notable attraction in the Imperial Troupe of trick cyclists, a great act in which daring tricksters defy air and gravity to perform their dangerous and startling evolutions.

Grace McCormick, the famous violinist, will be heard in their remarkable little sketch "The Prodigal Daughter," one of the best of the dramatic features in vaudeville today. The dramatic sketch will be presented by an all star cast, and has been lauded by critics in every engagement on "Big Time" in the East.

Manager Pantages new Spring bills are taken from the choicest of the "big time acts", and comprise bills never before seen in Oakland at less than "Big Time" prices. In other words, they are offering acts of the largest of the first class circuits at popular prices and further establishing Manager Pantages claim to first class bills at all times. The Steiner Trio, a horizontal bar act of class and Rice and Newton, in "Fun in One" are other attractions on the big bill, and another episode of "The Girl and the Game" will be seen.

Booked for the near future are Grace Cameron, the famous comedienne, Carman's Minstrels, and the famous photoplay sensation "The Iron Claw."

War Against Bachelor Is On Women To Exercise Prerogative

By Miss GEESHES OMECHICK

Dear Miss Geshes Omechick:

Kindly present some eligible who has plenty of the long green. I want to grab something to call a husband and as the time is rather limited I hope that you will present the name of some qualified gentleman at your earliest convenience.

AN READE.

Here is just the gentleman you are looking for. His name is Hank Christian Jacobson, proprietor of the Fern Leaf Pool hall. Mr. Jacobson is a native of Mobridge, South Dakota, and was just given citizenship papers, he claims.

By his intimate friends he is known by the dignified title of Sir Jake. Jake in addition to being possessor of the Fern Leaf also owns five large farms in South Dakota. He also owns a monkey wrench (joke) and an Owl cigar.

Is Jake Handsome? ea, girl he is. Like William Luce, Jake has an extended forehead, indicating his wonderful mental ability. When Jake removes his sky piece he is naked from the waist up.

Jake prefers blondes and any chicken under forty summers can grab this lad by merely phoning Richmond 152, as Jake is very desirous of hooking up with a soul mate.

He resides at the Kremlin club and is certainly an excellent catch.

While I do not like to boast I wish to announce the engagement of Royal Archibald Rogers, famous war correspondent and orator. Who the unfortunate young woman is, I do not know but I have it on very good authority that he will soon become a benedict. This will be a hard blow to many young aspirants to the young man's hand.

WINE AGREEMENT WILL BE REACHED

A compromise, by which the Ohio wine men will gain their contentions and the excessive war tax against California wines lightened, is the latest plan for the relief of the industry. Meetings between interested wine men of this county, Fresno, and other parts of the state and of representatives of the Ohio wine men, have been held in conjunction with the State Viticultural Commission, the sessions taking place in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco. The California wine men agree not to oppose the new definition of wine asked by the Ohio men, which would permit a wine forfeited wth grain alcohol to be termed "pure wine." In return Ohio is to aid in having the tax lowered.

The present emergency war tax on brandy for wine fortification is 55 cents. In addition to this all wines are subject to the stamp tax per gallon for fortification up to 20 per cent. The treasury department is demanding a heavier tax, to run as high as 20 cents per gallon after the ten per cent fortification limit is reached. It is intimated that the California wine men will not strenuously oppose the twenty-cent tax.

MARTINEZ ROAD IS APPLICANT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10—The Martinez and Concord Interurban Railway Company made application this morning to the State Railroad Commission for authority to issue securities to defray the cost of constructing the first unit of its line from Martinez to Concord. The distance is nine miles and the first unit will be 3.3 miles in length and will run from Martinez to the tracks of the Santa Fe where a connection will be made. The company proposes to interchange business with the Santa Fe immediately and with the Oakland and Antioch at Concord as soon as the complete line is constructed. It is estimated that the first unit will entail an expenditure of $83,241

THE RICHMOND

In the story of "The Ragmuffin" showing today at the Richmond Theater, a fine opportunity is given Miss Blanche Sweet to use all those sweet wiles which have made her a famed star in the world of photodrama. In the play she appears as a child of the slums, in rags and taters, but still the charming, smiling girl who is loved by hundreds of theater goers.

In the story Miss Sweet is Jenny, a child of the streets whose foster father Dugan uses her in burglarizing homes. She meets Bob Van Dye while on such a job and Bob gives her a start toward better things by trusting her. At last their fortunes become more nearly equal as Bob loses money in speculation. She finally saves Bob from committing a crime and Bob tells her of his love.

There will be also the famous Pathe news feature of current events and a very funny Lonesome Luke comedy entitled Lonesome Luke leans to the literary."

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to extend my sincere and heart felt thanks to members of Alpha Lodge of Masons and friends for the kindness and sympathy extended during my late bereavement the loss of my loving brother John C. Buchan.
Signed Alex. S. C. Buchan.

STORIES OF SPRINGTIME

The second of the series of nature story hours will be held this Saturday, the 11th, at the library. The stories to be told are: "The Apple Tree Sprite" a delightfully imaginative tale of a little girl who fell asleep in the blossoming apple tree and had a vision of how the apple is made; and the Greek myth, "Proserpina and King Pluto"

WHOSE NAMES ON BIG ROCK?

Members of the citizen's committee and the architects in charge of the construction of the new city hall on the Nicholl site are perplexed as to what names should ornament the exterior of the big block, which is on the ground and ready to be fixed in the terra firma as soon as this detail is arranged.

It has been suggested that the name of the doner of the site, John Nicholl be one of the honored cognomens and that the remainder of the names should include the members of the citizen's committee which supervised the work.

TELEGRAPH TICKS

OAKLAND, March 10—(12.30 P. M.) General Funston will have to face 300 Gorilla troops, says late Washington dispatches.

OAKLAND, March 11—(1 o'clock) Wire reports from Columbus New Mexico says 3 companies of the First Batallion, 20th Infantry ordered to Columbus from Victoria, New Mexico.

OAKLAND, March 11—(2 o'clock) Two hundred Mexican bandits crossed border at Osborn Arizona and killed another American rancher last night, says reports from Bisbee Arizona.

EL PASO (Via Oakland) (2:15 o'clock)—Villa is headed for Casas Grandes, Chihuahua, presumably to attack 500 Mormans settled there say reports from Jaurez.

WASHINGTON, March 10.— A tentative plan for the operations deemed necessary by the War Department to execute the President's order was completed tonight by the general staff war plans committee. Secretary Beker immediaely took it to the White House.

EL PASO, March 10.—Seventy women refugees from Columbus arrived here today, including Mrs. Maud Wright who after nine days as a prisoner with Villa's army escaped the raid, and Mrs. Ritchie accompanied her for interment of the body of her husband, W. T. Ritchie, the hotel proprietor murdered by the Mexicans.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The first "War Conference" to formulate orders to General Funston to capture or kill General Villa was held in the offices of Secretary of War Beker this afternoon.

In attendance were Secretary Baker and Major Generals Scott, Aleshire and Brigadier Generals McCain and Sharpe.

General orders are expected to be forwarded in a ftw hours and it is believed that Funston will be given a free hand.

The expedition will go to Mexico as soon as possible.

A decision to this effect was reached at today's cabinet meet.

It was unanimously agreed by the members of the President's official familly that there can be no further temporizing. The Columbus outrage has aroused Congress to such an extent that President Wilson and his advisors have decided that the policy of 'waterful waiting' should be abandoned and that Villa must be removed.
